

Executive Registry
95-9122

*Put in 19
Town Meeting
Folder*

PRESS RELEASE

Oct. 20, 1975

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For further information call:
Chris Gatewood, (202) 223-0283

AMERICAN ATTITUDES TOWARD THE MILITARY

Admiral Thomas Moorer, former Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, will debate Rep. Les Aspin (D.-Wisc.), member of the House Armed Services Committee, in an hour-long National Town Meeting in the Eisenhower Theatre of the Kennedy Center, Wednesday, Oct. 29th, beginning at 10:30 a.m. Bonnie Angelo, Time magazine, will moderate.

The program, which is devoted to audience questioning of the panel members, is expected to focus on the ever-present "guns or butter" issue and the widening rift between Congress and the Defense Dept. over spending, with Secretary Schlesinger calling for a $2 billion increase in the budget and the Hill concentrating on budget cuts. Other issues involved in "American Attitudes Toward the Military" are: the reduction of U.S. forces in Europe, progress in creating an all-volunteer army, the effect of the Hathaway Amendment allowing women into military academies, and differences between the Pentagon and State Dept. concerning Detente.

The National Town Meeting is funded by a grant from the Mobil Oil Corporation and admission to the program is free. Broadcast of the Wednesday meeting can be heard over National Public Radio's 170 member stations across

National Town Meeting

Press Release

Page Two

Oct. 20, 1975

the country. A twenty-minute version is being offered by the Associated Press Radio service. Locally, the broadcast can be heard on Thurs. evening at 6:30 over WETA-FM (90.9). Seating has been made available for members of the press.